FAMILY GROUP NIGHT "Your Kingdom Come, Your Will Be Done"

READ IT

"Therefore, you should pray like this: Our Father in heaven, your name be honored as holy. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And do not bring us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

Matthew 6:9-13, CSB

DISCOVER IT

On Sunday, our church looked at Matthew 6:10. Jesus shows us that we should pray for God's kingdom to come, not ours. Jesus also shows us that we should pray for God's will to be done, not ours. Both of these are bold and "risky" prayers. Believers are called to fully trust, surrender, and listen to the Lord. That is not always easy! We learned that God's ways are the best and regardless of our circumstance, He will be with us. The path that glorifies God is the same path that benefits you.

- ASK IT
- Do you find yourself praying more for things you want or things that God wants?
 - How is God's kingdom different from earthly kingdoms or governments?
 - Have you ever experienced a time where God's plan turned out better than your own?

- LIVE IT
- Trust in the goodness of God.
 - Pray first to adore, worship, and submit to God. Then bring your needs before the Father.
 - Ask the Holy Spirit to help your heart desire to do God's will more than your own.

PRAY IT

Creator God, You are a good God. I love You. I confess to You that I often times do not put Your kingdom first. I put my own. I confess to You that often times I do not follow Your will. I follow my own. Please help me to trust in You, follow You, and submit to You. I know that You are a good God. Help me love You more and live to glorify You.

Recently, during Kids Camp, our children collected more than 3,000 school supply items as part of our mission offering. These supplies will be given to Clarkston International Bible Church in Clarkston, Georgia. Each year, this partner church provides over 500 backpacks filled with school supplies for children who have just arrived in the United States with their families from numerous countries around the world.

Many of these families have come seeking asylum because of religious, political, or other forms of persecution. While these supplies will certainly help ease the challenge of starting school in a new country, our greatest joy is knowing we are teaching our children that living on mission is a normal part of following Christ.

Parents, I encourage you to keep nurturing a missional heart in your children. Teach them how to use their resources wisely and to give generously. Pray for them and prepare them, trusting that one day you will release them into God's kingdom work. Most importantly, help them understand that missions is more than just volunteering or being kind—it is rooted in the truth that every person is created in the image of God and deserves to hear the Gospel. Will you celebrate with me what God is doing at South Main? And will you pray that He raises up future missionaries from our SMBC kids' ministry to go into the world when the time comes?

Together, we are raising a new generation of missionaries at South Main.
