

LUSAKA, ZAMBIA

College Evangelism Project

Use two weeks of your summer to share the Gospel with college students in the city of Lusaka, Zambia. Here college students from across Africa attend one of the almost 50 public and private colleges in this capital city. Join a team of college students and young adults dedicated to building relationships and sharing the Gospel with students along with hosting a college worship conference so they may gather as one body from across the country.
